President Wilson.
Upon the retirement of Justice Job Barnard a vacancy was created. For some time Commissioner Siddons' name has been mentioned to fill the position. From an authoritative source it was learned yesterday the Commissioner's name probably would be sent to the Senate this work. No concerted efforts have been made by friends of the Commissioner to bring about his nomination, inasmuch as he ob-jected to any influence being brought in that direction. To Commissioner Oliver P. Newman and other friends who expressed a willingness to aid toward his elevation to the bench, Commissioner Siddons has stated he was not a candiany work or labor, or from recomend-ing, advising, or persuading others by peaceful means so to do, or of peacefully persuading any person to work or to abstain from working; or from ceasing date, and felt that he ought to remain in his position at the District Building to carry out such policies to which he was However, a few of his friends suggested to Attorney General McReynolds that his name be mentioned to the President for the position.
